

BYLAWS OF iLaunchify, Inc. (a Delaware corporation)

ARTICLE I — OFFICES

1.1 Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware shall be as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, and the registered agent in charge of that office shall be as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation. The Corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by resolution of the Board of Directors and the filing of the appropriate certificate with the Secretary of State.

1.2 Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places, both within and outside the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE II — MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

2.1 Place of Meetings. Meetings of stockholders shall be held at any place, within or outside the State of Delaware, designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that a meeting shall not be held at any place but shall instead be held solely by means of remote communication as authorized by Section 211(a)(2) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").

2.2 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of stockholders shall be held for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, on such date and at such time as the Board of Directors shall designate. The failure to hold an annual meeting at the designated time shall not affect the validity of any corporate action.

2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or by the holders of at least ten percent (10%) of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at a special meeting shall be limited to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

2.4 Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of stockholders stating the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Notice may be given by any means permitted by the DGCL, including by electronic transmission to the extent permitted by law.

2.5 Quorum. The holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of stockholders. If a quorum is not present, the chairperson of the meeting or the stockholders present may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present.

2.6 Voting. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder. In all matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the stockholders. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

2.7 Proxies. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy, executed in writing or transmitted by electronic means permitted by law. No proxy shall be voted after three (3) years from its date unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

2.8 Action Without a Meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing (including by electronic transmission) setting forth the action so taken is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of any such action shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

2.9 Record Date. In order to determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting, to consent to corporate action in writing, or to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted and which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting.

ARTICLE III — DIRECTORS

3.1 Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

3.2 Number and Term. The authorized number of directors shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors or by the stockholders. As of the adoption of these Bylaws, the authorized number of directors is two (2). Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until such director's successor is elected and qualified, or until such director's earlier resignation, removal or death. Directors need not be stockholders.

3.3 Vacancies and Newly Created Directorships. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

3.4 Resignation and Removal. Any director may resign at any time upon notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the Corporation. Subject to the Certificate of Incorporation, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

3.5 Regular and Special Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairperson of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or by any director, on at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice to each director given personally, by telephone, by electronic mail or by other electronic transmission, or on at least three (3) days' notice given by mail.

3.6 Quorum and Vote. A majority of the total authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law requires a greater number.

3.7 Participation by Remote Communication. Members of the Board of Directors or of any committee may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone, video conference or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

3.8 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writing or writings or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.

3.9 Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and may delegate to any such committee such authority as is permitted by Section 141(c) of the DGCL. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

3.10 Compensation. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to fix the compensation of directors, including reimbursement of expenses of attendance at meetings. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

3.11 Interested Director Transactions. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for that reason, provided the requirements of Section 144 of the DGCL are satisfied. Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV — OFFICERS

4.1 Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall include a President or a Chief Executive Officer and a Secretary. The Board of Directors may also appoint a Chairperson of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer or Chief Financial Officer, and such other officers as it deems necessary. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.

4.2 Term, Removal and Vacancies. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor is elected and qualified or until such officer's earlier resignation or removal. Any officer may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

4.3 Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer shall have general supervision, direction and control of the business and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, and shall perform all duties incident to the office and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

4.4 President. The President shall, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer, have general responsibility for the operations of the Corporation and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer. In the absence of a Chief Executive Officer, the President shall perform the duties of that office.

4.5 Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders and record all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose, shall give or cause to be given notice of all meetings, shall be custodian of the corporate records and the seal (if any), shall maintain or cause to be maintained the stock ledger of the Corporation, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

4.6 Treasurer or Chief Financial Officer. The Treasurer or Chief Financial Officer shall have custody of the corporate funds and securities, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements, shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors, and shall render to the Board of Directors an account of the financial condition of the Corporation upon request.

4.7 Authority to Execute Instruments. Unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or any other officer authorized by the Board of Directors shall have the power to execute and deliver, on behalf of the Corporation, contracts, deeds, bonds, and other instruments, and to vote any securities of other entities held by the Corporation.

ARTICLE V — CAPITAL STOCK

5.1 Shares; Certificates. The shares of the Corporation shall be represented by certificates, provided that the Board of Directors may provide by resolution that some or all of any class or series of stock shall be uncertificated shares. Every holder of certificated stock shall be entitled to a certificate signed by, or in the name of the Corporation by, any two authorized officers of the Corporation.

5.2 Transfers. Shares of stock of the Corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the Corporation, upon surrender of the certificate representing such shares (if certificated) properly endorsed, or upon proper instruction in the case of uncertificated shares, and subject to any restrictions on transfer set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or any agreement to which the Corporation is a party.

5.3 Restrictions on Transfer. The Corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer of its securities, including rights of first refusal, repurchase rights, and market standoff obligations, by agreement with any holder, and such restrictions shall be noted conspicuously on any certificate or in the notice provided to holders of uncertificated shares.

5.4 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The Corporation may issue a new certificate in place of any certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon such terms and with such indemnity or bond as the Board of Directors may require.

5.5 Registered Stockholders. The Corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any share of stock as the holder in fact thereof and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person, except as otherwise provided by law.

5.6 Stock Ledger. The Corporation shall maintain a stock ledger recording the name and address of each stockholder, the number and class of shares held, the date of issuance, and the consideration received.

ARTICLE VI — INDEMNIFICATION

6.1 Right to Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person (an "Indemnitee") who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or, while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such Indemnitee.

6.2 Advancement of Expenses. The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnitee in defending any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided that such payment shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified.

6.3 Non-Exclusivity; Contract Right. The rights conferred in this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, any agreement, any vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The rights conferred in this Article VI shall be contract rights and shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

6.4 Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the DGCL.

6.5 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article VI with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers.

6.6 Amendment or Repeal. Any repeal or modification of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VII — GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on December 31 of each year, unless otherwise fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

7.2 Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation and applicable law, may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

7.3 Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may adopt a corporate seal. The failure to use a corporate seal shall not affect the validity of any instrument.

7.4 Notices. Whenever notice is required to be given under the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, such notice may be given in writing directed to the person's address appearing on the records of the Corporation, or by electronic transmission to the extent permitted by Section 232 of the DGCL.

7.5 Waiver of Notice. Whenever notice is required to be given, a written waiver signed by the person entitled to notice, or a waiver by electronic transmission, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice, except when the person attends for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

7.6 Books and Records. The books and records of the Corporation may be kept at such place or places, within or outside the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, and may be maintained in electronic form.

7.7 Amendments. These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, or new bylaws may be adopted, by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders, subject to any limitation in the Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law.

7.8 Conflict. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Bylaws and the Certificate of Incorporation, the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation shall control.

CERTIFICATE OF ADOPTION OF BYLAWS
